Gold'N News

Mark your calendars!

Next meeting:

Next meeting will be Monday October 24th.

Halloween Party!

Feel free to dress up yourself and your dog!

Let's have a fun, relaxing evening!

Medina Kennel Club 6840 Lake Rd Medina, OH 44256

Anytime after 630 pm

Upcoming Events:

CVGRC sponsored Agility Trial at CAPS-October 14-15-16th.

Volunteers Needed:

For CAPS agility trial - If you are running a dog, can you help out for a few hours? If you are free and can help, Andrene can certainly use you! Let her know. It's easier to have a few people and do shifts

Reminder: NO ONE in the club or GRCA is going to email you and ask you to get gift cards! I have gotten requests from "Don" and "Vicki" and this week, someone from the GRCA. You can usually tell by hovering over their email address. But if you get any strange requests, just call or text the person.

DID YOU GET A NATIONAL PIN??

If any club members would like a 2022 National pin, please contact

Kathy Sutliff @ katsdogs2@aol.com

Message from the President

After a month of recovery time from the National I hope everyone's life is returning to normal (or as much as possible with dogs). I know my "normal" is a litter of 6 three week old puppies and a very busy 6 month old boy. It is never dull. But now that we are rested, it's time for a little relaxation and fun. With that in mind, a Halloween Party for members and dogs is being planned for the month's meeting. Costumes encouraged, but not required. See more information later in the newsletter
Time to feed puppies, got to go!

A big shout out to everyone who helped make the National Specialty WC/WCX a success! Thank you to all of my ten judges (Ann Lynn is the only CVGRC member) who kept things going while also making everyone feel welcome. A field event can't be successful without plenty of workers, including Marshals, shooters, throwers, food and so much more. A special thank you to the CVGRC members who helped out: Carol Young, Co-chair; Tara Perby, Test Secretary; Peg Burlett, field Coordinator; Andrene Schabel, lunches; Cappi Mercer, Marshal, Karen Phillips, Marshal. I could not have run this event without all of the help and equipment from the Marshbanks Golden Retriever club—you guys were wonderful!!

Cortney showed Beau-D to his very best!

Alyssa in the BOB ring

The 2022 GRCA National Specialty was Beau-D's National. I decided not to enter Tyko or Spirit and to just spend some special time with Mr. B. I entered him in Novice Veteran Obedience where we took 2nd place with a 198.5. I then ventured into the Conformation ring for the first time showing in the Veteran 12+ Sweeps class. Beau-D was handicapped by my lack of handling skills but still earned 2nd place and I didn't fall down! I turned the leash over to Cortney Corral for the Gun Dog  Sweeps and the Veteran Non-Regular 12+ class. Cortney brought the best out of Beau-D and they won both classes. Cortney was really excited to show Beau-D as she was the one who put his Championship on him several years ago. Alyssa Richards took over the leash in the BOB ring where they made a cut. Beau-D had a blast and being 12 1/2 made this NS so special. We also participated in the Parade of Title Holders.

Beau-D is: CH OTCH10 Morgen's Lil' Bit of Skyefire UDX11, OGM RN TD MH27 AX AXJ WCX OS OBHF DDHF VCX CCA

Heeling with Beau-D is like doing a dance!

Dear Kathy -
 Thank you so much for sending me the National pins they will be a nice golden addition to my "National" hat. This years dogo captured the Golden spirit.
 Having been involved for almost fifty years putting on an all breed show (Carroll County NC of NW) I know the time and commitment involved. I was glad to see as one person commented; A mature dog take Best of Breed.
 The Golden's are a breed that can do it all - sometimes on their own terms! I was involved in Obed.
 Thank You Again -

Dorothy requested the national pin and she wasn't going to be at the national so I sent her a couple. She sent me this lovely thank you note and a $25 donation to the club.
